We spoke about the expectation of being a school councillor, and what an important role it is. I asked the children if they had any ideas, E (Y5) suggested that each class had an ideas board so that they could write their ideas down.

I discussed having a book for each class to write their ideas down and all of the children thought it was a good idea.

I explained that for the next meeting, I would like them to have a think about, and discuss with their class, their thoughts on Golden time, playtime, activities that are available to them (after school and lunchtime).

In the next meeting, we are going to hand out badges, feedback their thoughts on the subjects given and decide on our first focus.
